in architectural terms the twentieth century can be largely summed up with two names frank lloyd wright and philip johnson wright 1867 1959

began it with his romantic prairie style johnson 1906 2005 brought down the curtain with his spare postmodernist experiments between them they built some of the most admired and discussed buildings in american history differing radically in their views on architecture wright and johnson shared a restless creativity enormous charisma and an outspokenness that made each man irresistible to the media often publicly at odds they were the twentieth century's flint and steel their repeated encounters consistently set off sparks yet as acclaimed historian hugh howard shows their rivalry was also a fruitful artistic conversation one that yielded new directions for both men it was not despite but rather because of their contentious and not always admiring relationship that they were able so powerfully to influence history in architecture's odd couple howard deftly traces the historical threads connecting the two men and offers readers a distinct perspective on the era they so enlivened with their designs featuring many of the structures that defined modern space from fallingwater to the guggenheim from the glass house to the seagram building this book presents an arresting portrait of modern architecture's odd couple and how they shaped the american landscape by shaping each other a lyrical and understanding chronicler of people who somehow become displaced within their own lives mr lindsay abaire has shown a special affinity for female characters suddenly forced to re evaluate the roles by which they define themselves new york times set in the bristol place assisted living facility this glorious and biting new comedy from david lindsay abaire centers around abby who takes pride in her residence in one of the most coveted rooms in the rest home things turn sour quickly when she must take in marilyn a new roommate to share her precious space in a satirical conflict of territory and control lindsay abaire spins a benign typically mundane setting into an absurdist colorful battleground this high stakes comedy examines our expectations of what it means to grow old in twenty first century america and what happens when a sense of possession collides with a mania of obsession david lindsay abaire's plays include good people fuddy meers kimberly akimbo wonder of the world high fidelity a devil inside and rabbit hole winner of the 2007 pulitzer prize for drama lindsay abaire wrote the book for shrek the musical and the screen adaptation of rabbit hole starring nicole kidman lindsay abaire is a proud new dramatists alum a graduate of sarah lawrence college and the juilliard school as well as a member of the wga and the dramatists guild council a brand new lawyer and his young bride have returned from their honeymoon and are moving into their new high rent apartment only to find that the place is absolutely bare of furniture the paint job is all wrong the skylight leaks there is room for only one twin bed and the wacky neighbors pop up at the worst times a portrait of three couples successively occupying a suite at the plaza a suburban couple take the suite while their house is being painted and it turns out to be the one in which they honeymooned 23 or was it 24 years before and was yesterday the anniversary or is it today this tale of marriage in tatters is followed by the exploits of a hollywood producer who after three marriages is looking for fresh fields he calls a childhood sweetheart now a suburban housewife for a little sexual diversion over the years she has idolized him from afar and is now more than the match he bargained for the last couple is a mother and father fighting about the best way to get their daughter out of the bathroom and down to the ballroom where guests await her or as mother yells i want you to come out of that bathroom and get married publisher's description neil simon's plays are to some extent a reflection of his life sometimes autobiographical other times based on the experiences of those close to him what the reader of this warm nostalgic memoir discovers however is that the plays although grounded in neil simon's own experience provide only a glimpse into the mind and soul of this very private man in rewrites he tells of the painful discord he endured at home as a child of his struggles to develop his talent as a writer and of his insecurities when dealing with what proved to be his first great success falling in love supporting players in the anecdote filled memoir include sid caesar jerry lewis walter matthau robert redford gwen verdon bob fosse maureen stapleton george c scott peter sellers and mike nichols but always at center stage is his first love his wife joan whose death in the early seventies devastated him and whose love and inspiration illuminate this remarkable and revealing self portrait rewrites rich in laughter and emotion and filled with the memories of a sometimes sweet sometimes bittersweet life now for the first time ever simon's complete life story is collected in one volume with a new introduction and afterword dust jacket muraco studies friendships between straight women and gay men and straight men and lesbians to consider how their relationships both challenge and reinforce conventional notions of sexuality and gender based on in depth interviews the book considers how people experience gender and sex roles differently within these intersectional relationships
